

4. riffs / 8 bars to start

I'll Forget You Very Well

G D
 I'll forget u very well I'll forget u very well the butcher the baker the candlestick maker
 G
 'tis the tail no tongue will tell

I'll forget you very well I'll forget u very well hey diddle diddle your cat on my fiddle your cow can jump over my moon

F C G C
 walking thru the woods one day I found myself alone
 F C G
 like the wise man said "no direction home"
 F C G all who wander are not lost but sometimes there's a C little cost
 F C D sorry love, I gotta say shalom

I'll forget u very well I'll forget u very well the downtrodden lass, the intern kissing ass Each with their tale to tell

Solo
 Solo

~~I'll forget u very well I'll forget u very well my Little Bo Peep turned out a creep
 I never did like sheep~~

F C G C
 walking down a city street I saw her standing there F C G that's a Beatles song...yes, it is F C G C
 Winning love was so much fun but seems u found C another 1
 F C D Love which was mine is now his

~~Solo~~

I'll forget you very well I'll forget you very well when I'm drinking, I'm thinking why I am I sinking?
 no wonder ^{they} some call love Hell

Solo 2 over G#D verse

I'll forget you very well I'll forget you very well for better or worse like the last verse
 I'll forget you very well
 D for better or worse just like the last verse I'll forget you very well

3 riffs end

